

Timber harvesting operations in the Haywood area

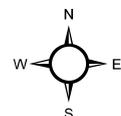

Green areas = routine thinning to give the better trees more room.

Red hatch areas = clearfell for disease control and heathland restoration

West England District

1:13,000